

There are hills and canyons around the town where I live, often preventing me from receiving regular FM or AM radio signals. Some days the only traffic or weather report I can get is through my satellite radio. This service is too critical to limit distribution only through traditional FM or AM radio. And as a paying subscriber of these services, any action to prohibit or restrict my access seems unlawful.

I respectfully request the FCC to reject petition 04-160.